Tamilnadu Psychology Association

About TNPA:

The Tamil Nadu Psychology Association was registered on 2nd December 2014 under the Tamil Nadu Societies Act 1975 Vide Reg. No: 121/2014. The objective of the association is to integrate various eminent Professors & Professionals in the field of psychology and provide a platform for an efficient coordination among psychologists and enable them to provide services to the society.

Aim of TNPA:

It is to help the General masses in Tamil Nadu also by creating awareness in mental health education and improve themselves. Moreover, to develop and apply modern methods of study in the field of psychology to suit our culture, and to provide professional guidance and education for psychology students and professionals.

Events:

TNPA Awards: Introduction

This is the first award ceremony organized by the Tamil Nadu Psychology Association. The objective of this event is to felicitate the retired professors who have dedicated themselves in the field of psychology during their lifetime. The awards are constituted in the names of Professors G.D. Boaz, S.P. Adinarayan, T.E. Shanmugam and M. Rajamanickam

The awards will also be presented to students of psychology, teachers working in the field of psychology, psychologists, etc., to review their work and make them proud and motivated

Category of Awards:

Three persons from each category will be selected and the awards will be given accordingly

- Best Psychologists (Education, Clinical, Rehabilitation, Community, Organizational)
- Young Scientists (Department of Psychology)
- Outstanding teachers (Department of Psychology)
- Students Award (Department of Psychology)

Publication of TNPA Magazine & Books:

From 2018-2020 on behalf of the Tamil Nadu Psychology Association, a monthly magazine was released. Unfortunately magazine was stopped due to the covid-19 crisis. Once again, the Quarterly Issue will be introduced in a new form with a collection of psychology articles for the benefit of the general public and students, with the help of eminent psychologists and professors. Apart from this, the Tamil Nadu Psychology Association publication will also be releasing books on psychology in Tamil.
